Midsummer Queen

Karen Louise Juul, represents the Sveadal Cabin Owners Association. Her family has a long history with Sveadal and the Swedish community. Her great-grandparents, Erik and Agda Erikson, were among the first to enjoy Sveadal as seasonal visitors when it initially opened. The family has called Sveadal a second home ever since.

Karen's grandmother, Alice Doody, was Svea in 1941. Her mother, Janice, was Columbia in 1966. Her father, Tom, served as President of the Swedish American Patriotic League in 1976-77, and President of the Sveadal Club in 1969-70. Karen's brother, Erik, is also a Past President of the Sveadal Club. He and his wife Sara continue active participation in support of Sveadal.

Karen graduated from the University of Oregon in 2000 and will receive a Master's Degree and teaching credential this summer. She has enjoyed traveling in Central America and loves outdoor adventures and organic gardening.

Karen is engaged to Scott Wilkinson from Davis. the couple plans to marry in Sveadal this September. They will make their home in Santa Rosa where Scott is a landscape architect and Karen will teach high school science.

Wishing you a Glad Midsummer

Congratulations to Queen Karen and Her Court

Svea and Columbia

Two sisters, Linnea Anne Weissenborn and Marta Irene Weissenborn, will be this year's Svea and Columbia. Linnea was selected Svea by the Swedish Ladies Society-Jenny Lind of Oakland, and Marta was selcted Columbia by the Swedish Club of San Francisco and the Bay Area.

Linnea and Marta are the daughters of Charlotte and Ken Weissenborn of Fremont. Ken is a Past President of the Swedish American Patriotic League and has served on the Board of Governors of Sveadal for many years. Both girls have enjoyed growing up in Sveadal, spending their summers at the family cabin that their grandparents built. Charlotte and Ken are members of the Sveadal Club and Tegner Lodge #149, VOA, Oakland. Charlotte was Midsummer Queen in 1967 and Ken is a past president of the Swedish American Patriotic League.

They are the granddaughters of the late Gladys and John Peterson. Gladys and John Peterson were both very active in the Bay Area Swedish community. Both were past presidents of the Swedish American Patriotic League of the East Bay. Among the many lodges that they belonged to were Tegner Lodge #149 VOA, the Swedish Cultural Society of Northern California, and the Swedish Club of San Francisco and the Bay Area. Both served for many years on the Board of Directors and the Management Committee of Sveadal. John was Past District Master of VASA Order of America, Golden Gate District #12, as well as a member of the Swedish Men's Society of Oakland. Gladys enjoyed being a long time member of the Swedish Ladies Society-Jenny Lind of Oakland.

Linnea graduated from Mission High School in Fremont and is currently an Art History major at Ohlone College, Fremont. She is planning on study in England this Fall at Cambridge University. At Ohlone Linnea played on the women's water polo team and took an active part in the college's dance program. Linnea hopes to eventually get her degree in Interior Architecture. She currently teaches dancing and is also working at Ethan Allan Interior. Linnea spent three weeks in Sweden as a VASA exchange student living with a family in Skara. Linnea worked at Sveadal as a lifeguard for two summers, and is a member of Tegner Lodge, #149 VOA.

Marta also graduated from Mission High School, Fremont and is currently attending Ohlone College in Fremont where she was on the women's soccer team. Marta is planning on getting her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. Marta has studied Swedish for three summers at the Sjölinden Concordia Language Village in Minnesota, where she was honored to have received the Vasa Sjölinden Scholarship twice. Marta is also a member of Tegner Lodge, #149 VOA and has enjoyed many summers at Sveadal. Marta worked as a lifeguard at Sveadal for one year. Currently Marta works at American Eagle and is a lifeguard at a community pool.

With the recent passing of their grandmother, both Linnea and Marta view being Svea and Columbia this year as a very special honor, and are happy to be representing two of the lodges that their grandmother had enjoyed being so much a part of.

Marete Meyer, Soprano
Swedish Jenny Lind Scholar 2002

Merete Meyer, 26-years old, was born in Fredrikstad, Norway. She started studying music and theater as a child, and appeared in several Norwegian musical theater productions, including "Sound of Music" in the role of Louisa von Trapp. Merete did her undergraduate studies at the Norwegian State Academy of Music, and is currently a student at the Opera Academy in Stockholm, Sweden. She will graduate in February 2003.

Her repertoire at the Opera Academy have included the roles of Donna Elvira and Zerlina in "Don Giovanni", the countess in "The Marriage of Figaro, the First Lady and Pamina in "The Magic Flute", Marguerite in "Faust", Nanetta in "Falstaff" and Musetta in "La Boheme". In the spring of 2002 she will be singing Mimi in "La Boheme" in a school presentation at the Royal Opera in Stockholm.

Merete is regularly hired to sing concerts. Some of her favourite concert repertoire includes Scandinavian songs by Grieg, Sibelius, Rangström, Stenhammar and Petterson-Berger. She also sings Schubert, Schumann, Wolf and Debussy. Her repertoire also includes light opera and musical theater.

Maria and Marete

Maria Ydreborg, Piano
Accompanist to Merete Meyer

Maria Ydreborg was born and raised in Jonkoping, Sweden. She began her piano studies at age eight. After her graduation from the Music Secondary School of Jonkoping she went on to the University College of Music in Gothenburg where she studied for a piano teaching degree. She continued with a performance degree in piano at the royal University College of Music in Stockholm. She is presently an Artist Diploma student at the same school with an expected graduation in 2003. Two of her teachers have included Stefan Bojsten and Staffan Scheja, both acclaimed concert pianists as well as professors of piano at the Royal University College of Music in Stockholm. Maria is mainly focused on chamber music, both instrumental and vocal. She has participated in several chamber music festivals and master classes. During several summers she has toured in Sweden with various ensembles. She is particularly interested in 19th century romantic music, but also likes the challenge of contemporary music.

Maria Ydreborg won the Accompanist Scholarship of the Royal University College of Music in 2002.

The scholarships are given by the Royal Music Academy, and Folkparkerna in Stockholm, Sweden.

Acoustic Group Briarwood

The Acoustic Group Briarwood, named after a famous street in Bluegrass heaven, the Rue de Briarwood in Paris, France, consists of five musicians hailing from different geographical and musical backgrounds. Their eclectic musical selection results from overindulgence in various chemical and philosophical substances at critical junctures of their individual and collective lives. As a result, in a Briarwood performance, one might hear Bill Monroe segue into Rufus Thomas into Keith Richard into Iris Demente into Trad R. Briarwood.

The ever-so-cute Chris Finn does a lot of singing and plays a mean mandolin and ukulele. She has studied with Jack Tuttle and Trad R. Briarwood. A longtime Californian, she says, "dude" a lot.

The frighteningly attractive Craig Sutherland is Briarwood's front man and guitarist/vocalist. He loves microphones, and has at least one in every room of his house. Craig is the author of the "Doctor Dean" song, as heard on the Doctor Dean Edell Show on 4/8/2002.

Lonesome Topher Gayle plays a bunch of instruments, at a whim. Sometimes he even plays them at audiences. Sometimes, he fills in on mandolin, mandola, guitar, and ukulele, but most of the time it's bass - he's a Jack of all strings, master of none. He really likes to abuse genres, so watchout for the occasional funk or soul tune coming out of his mandolin.

The youngest member of Briarwood is teen idol Rachel Rosenberg, hose fiddle and voice are not in the least inhibited by her braces. A stern task-mistress, she is the only one who can keep both Craig and Topher in line simultaneously. Rachel's been playing classical violin since she was knee-high to a fiddle bow, and is studying bluegrass fiddle with Jack Tuttle and the ubiquitous Trad R. Briarwood. Rachel assures us that if she needs a ukulele, her dad will buy her one.

Papa Joe Buczek is the father of twin three-year-olds, which is why he's gaining weight and his hair is turning gray. Every banjo or Dobro note he plays is precious to Joe, and he makes them all count. Hailing from the undecided state of Florida, he brings a certain authentic cracker sound to the band. He plays ukulele and a bunch of other instruments too, but with the Briarwood gang he only plays the heavy ones.

GLAD MIDSOMMAR

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so galantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

DU GAMLA, DU FRIA, DU FJÄLLHÖGA NORD

Du gamla, du fria, du fjällhöga Nord,
du tysta, du glädjerika sköna!
Jag hälsar dig vänaste land uppå jord
din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!
Din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!

Du tronar på minnen från fornstora dar,
då ärat ditt namn flög över jorden.
Jag vet, att du är och du blir, vad du var.
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden,
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden.

Translation

O glorious mountain crown'd land of the North,
thou quiet thou joyous land, I love thee,
I hail thee as fairest of lands on this earth;
Thy meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee,
The meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee.

Thy throne is the mem'ry of great days of yore,
when all through the world thy name was carried,
thou art this, I know, the same as of old.
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land,
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land.

In Loving Memory of

Ida May Nelson Hunsaker
1907-2001

Long time member of Utile Dulci, Ida Mae wanted Swedish customs and culture to endure, particularly in Sveadal, and she remembered the Swedish American Patriotic League in her will. We would like to remember her at this Midsommer celebration. God bless Ida Mae.

With love, The Nelson and Beroza families.

The Maid of Honor for Tegner Lodge #149, VOA, Oakland should be Amy Bendix, not Amy Baxter.

On the ad for Sveaborg Lodge, your editor forgot to delete the name of Patience Erickson as Columbia.
